The journal is available in hard copy by subscription and is carried by over 700 libraries and institutions across the United States. The journal is also indexed in the Cabell's Directory of Publishing Opportunities and the Index to Legal Periodicals and Books. It is available in full text electronic version via the ABI/Inform and EBSCO Host databases and also in full text on the JLSB website. JLSB has a record of high quality legal scholarship as a selective journal with a 20% acceptance rate for 2016-2017.

The Journal of Legal Studies in Business publishes articles addressing a wide variety of subject matter relating to business law, commercial law, international commerce, ethics, social responsibility and related pedagogies. The JLSB is focused on its mission of providing an important publication vehicle for high quality academic scholarship reflecting substantive research relevant to these subjects.

JOURNAL SUBMISSION

MANUSCRIPTS

The Journal of Legal Studies in Business invites submission of high quality scholarship addressing a wide variety of subject matter relating to business law, commercial law, international commerce, ethics, social responsibility and related pedagogies. JLSB does not accept previously published manuscripts or those that will be published elsewhere. Manuscripts may be sent simultaneously to other journals on the condition that the author(s) undertake to inform the appropriate JLSB editor immediately if the work is to be published elsewhere. All manuscripts should be sent in Microsoft Word format, electronically only, to the attention of our current Editorial Board at: JLSBjournal@gmail.com

If submitting for the Best Paper Award for the annual conference of Southeastern Academy of Legal Studies in Business, the subject line in your email should read "SEALSB Best Paper Award." If submitting otherwise than for the best paper award, the subject line in your email should read "JLSB manuscript submission."

COPY, CITATIONS, TABLES, FIGURES

Please make sure your submissions to the JLSB conform to the following guidelines:

1. All copy, including footnotes and indented portions of both text and footnotes, must be at least double-spaced with one inch margins in Microsoft Word format.
2. Because the Journal uses blind reviewing, the manuscript must not identify the author in the body of the paper.
3. Therefore, the manuscript should include a separate title page containing the following information: the title of the piece; author's or authors' name(s); institutional affiliation(s); email address(es); mailing address(es); phone number(s); and a short abstract of 150 words or less.
4. All footnotes should include pinpoint page citations as appropriate, and must be in full compliance with the style and typeface rules stated in the latest edition of A Uniform System of Citation (the "Bluebook").
5. The author is responsible for full compliance with this system of citation before relevant publication deadlines, and for the accuracy and relevance of their own footnotes and citations.
6. Tables, figures and/or charts will be placed at the end of the manuscript as Appendices. They should contain an explanatory heading and, if appropriate, should show the source at the bottom. Prior to publication, authors must provide a final electronic version of Appendices formatted according to Journal guidelines.
7. Authors of manuscripts accepted for publication will be responsible for providing a final electronic version formatted according to Journal guidelines, and executing a formal copyright agreement with the journal.

For more information about the JLSB and our detailed manuscript submission guidelines, please email our Editorial Board members at: JLSBjournal@gmail.com.

EDITOR'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am happy to send my last volume as Editor-in-Chief to our publisher, Cengage Learning. As I close out my 4 ½ years on the Editorial Board, I would like to thank the many reviewers, our editors, and the Cengage staff for their assistance during my tenure at the Journal. A sincere thanks to my student editors, Jonathan, Molly, and Taylor. Without them, this volume would not have been completed.

I would also like to thank our authors for their patience and their willingness to revise their manuscripts, so that we can continue to provide our readership cogent and timely articles.

I wish the new Editorial Board the best.
